

Maroon and Mi'kmaq: An International Indigenous Exchange

Monday, November 4th

Grenfell Campus, AS2026

- 6:30 p.m. Introduction by Dr. Stephanie McKenzie
- 6:30-7:15 p.m. Maroon documentary (& free popcorn)
- 7:15-7:30 p.m. Q & A
- 7:30-8:00 p.m. Refreshments
- 8:00 p.m. Introduction by Ingrid Mary Percy
- 8:00-8:30 p.m. Col. Frank Lumsden, "Art as an Expression of Culture"
- 8:30-8:45 p.m. Q & A

Tuesday, November 5th

Grenfell Campus, AS2026

- 7:00 p.m. Welcome by Dr. Stephanie McKenzie
- 7:00-7:15 p.m. Welcome by Keith Cormier and the Mi'kmaq Drumming Group
- 7:15-7:30 p.m. Introduction by Dr. Angela Robinson
- 7:30-8:00 p.m. Dr. Afua Cooper, "The Jamaican Maroons in the 18th-Century TransAtlantic Struggle for Black Liberation"
- 8:00-8:30 p.m. Col. Frank Lumsden, "Windward Maroons: Then and Now"
- 8:30-9:00 p.m. Saqamaw Mi'sel Joe, "Mi'kmaq Spirituality: Revival and Survival"
- 9:00-9:15 p.m. Refreshment Break
- 9:15-9:45 p.m. Panel Discussion

*Produced by Dr. Stephanie McKenzie and Pierian Arts.
Monday, Nov. 4th co-produced by Ingrid Mary Percy.*

Dr. Afua Cooper
Dalhousie University, Halifax

Chief Mi'sel Joe
Conne River First Nation

Colonel Frank Lumsden
Charles Town, Portland, Jamaica

Poster design by Theresa Lightfoot

GRENFELL
CAMPUS
Funded by MUN's Scholarship in the Arts Program
(Divisions of Social Sciences, Arts and Fine Arts)

Pierian Arts
Resources for Arts and Cultural Enterprises